November 7th Meeting Highlights

President Stan Hillard began the November meeting with some comments on the coming events for Ring 50. December brings the Annual Children's Holiday Show. Then watch the Ring 50 members perform at the January 2nd meeting and February 6th it's the Alain Nu lecture. March 6th Carl Andrews Lecture. April will be Magi-Whirl 2019, see page 2 for Magi-Whirl information.

Dan Krevere won $35 dollars in the 50/50 drawing and donated his winnings back to Ring 50.

Thanks Dan!!

President Hillard introduced Michael Vincent, a British magician and student of Darwin Ortiz, was a special guest for the evening. Michael won The Magic Circle's Close-up Magician of the Year award three times (1983, 1991 and 2003) and was awarded the title of International Magician of the Year in 1993. Another guest was Jason Ladanye who just published his second book on card magic, Game Changer

The lecture began at 7:45 PM before a standing room crowd of 53 after a short Ring 50 business meeting. In use for the Darwin Ortiz lecture was the newly acquired camera and huge TV screen to allow those in the back rows to see the close-up table.

Darwin Ortiz Lecture

Darwin Ortiz is a MASTER of close-up card magic and gambling techniques. Known worldwide for the many books that he has released on both subjects, Ortiz was a delight with his charming presentations and ridiculously smooth handling of some of the most intricate of techniques.

Having spent decades deceiving others with his uncanny skills, Ortiz shared some of the many classic effects that he is known for and some unpublished material.

Darwin Ortiz's lecture covered magic philosophy, moving beyond presentational theory and exploring the very structure of magic effects. He took the time while teaching his routines to give specific examples of theories and how conflict is the essence of dramatic story telling.

As a successful professional magician he has spent over 35 years creating, designing and refining the world of card magic and gambling techniques.

Ortiz has appeared before thousands of audiences of all kinds. During that time he has studied what it takes to really move an audience.

There are very few performers around the world whose work with the memorized deck has changed the course of magic. But Ortiz has done it! He shared with us his thoughts on the memorized deck. Ortiz was able to correctly identify cards that a participant cut to, cards in the middle of a packet. His detailed handling of the memorized deck was perfect for a newcomer or professional. He gave some important insights into performing this style of magic.

He had a spectator cut the deck, remove a card, and place it in his pocket. Ortiz shuffled the deck and placed the deck in his pocket. The spectator removed the card from his pocket and showed it. Ortiz reached into his pocket and after a few shakes removed the matching card of the spectator.

He followed this with a 3-card monte routine which the spectator and audience could not find the odd card time after time.

Next was a demonstration of Fast Company. One of the most convincing versions of Triumph (some cards face up, some face down) we have ever seen performed including a surprising climax.

After the 20 minute break he played poker with a spectator. The spectator cut the deck and removed a face down card. Ortiz did the same thing. Then the spectator cut the deck again and removed a face down card, so did Ortiz. Next time after the cut 2 cards were removed. Finally the deck was cut by the spectator and the fifth card was removed. Ortiz did the same. When the spectator turned over his cards he had 2 pair. When Ortiz turned over his cards he had a royal flush! I believe this was Jacks or Better - Ortiz's latest handling of this highly commercial gambling routine from "Darwin Ortiz at the Card Table".

Michael Vincent says: "It is no secret that I am big fan of Darwin Ortiz's books and have been long before I became one of his students. I make no apology for my enthusiasm for his latest contribution to the subject of card magic. I feel his book Lessons in Card Mastery is your opportunity to take your studies to a post graduate level".

Ortiz took the time while teaching his routines to give specific examples of theories and he explained many of the effects, with handling techniques. Several of the effects he taught can be found in his book Lessons in Card Mastery. This was a great evening enjoyed by all!

Magi-Whirl Co-Chairmen Danny Selnick and Craig Fifer are seeking your help in contacting and arranging for dealers to E-Mail them at Danny.Selnick@yahoo.com or Craig@fifer.net. THE PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Excitement All Around

"Life is like riding a bicycle. To keep your balance, you must keep moving." --- Albert Einstein

At this point in my tenure, I hope that the one thing we can all agree on is that we, as a Ring, are moving - and moving forward. No, not in great dynamic swells that eclipse and wash away past practices, but rather in small changes that enhance your experience as practitioners of the magical arts and members of Ring 50. The current officers have worked hard to put together a program that hopefully promotes your growth as magicians, entertains you, and teaches you some things that you didn't know when the year started. And hopefully provides an environment of brother/sisterhood that enriches all the magic in our lives. Keep them wheels a turnin.

I am an excitable person. And sometimes that excitement goes beyond any reasonable boundary. Just ask my wife who endures with a roll of the eyes and a gentle smile. But this month the magic gods have been incredibly generous to Ring 50. If you haven't been part of it, shame on you.

Our monthly meeting welcomed one of the elite of card magic, Darwin Ortiz, who demonstrated some of the magic and moves that have made him an international legend. Adding to the excitement of the night were two guests that have almost equal stature within the international magic community, Michael Vincent from the UK who most of us have seen on Penn and Teller's "Fool Um" television program and who is a triple winner of the UK Magic Circle's Close Up Magician of the Year, and Jason Ladanye who just published his second book on card magic, Game Changer, to rave reviews.

A few days before our Wednesday night meeting members of Ring 50 attended a workshop conducted by the incredible Dani DaOrtiz, from Barcelona, Spain (Marc Carrion's home town). Marc worked hard to make this happen and it was a wonderful experience for all who attended. Dani is clearly at the apex of card magic in that part of the world and is highly regarded internationally as well.

And this past weekend more than a dozen Ring 50 members attended the Joshua Jay production entitled "Six Impossible Things" in New York City. It was a wonderful hour and a half and we all went away with an overwhelming desire to push our own magic to a higher level - even we old guys. For those of us who stayed a few days in the Big Apple, well what can you say, New York is New York.

Providing this type of opportunity to all our members is a priority for the Ring 50 Officers and we hope to provide several more such opportunities before the current magical year is exhausted in July 2019.

Much is being done to make next Spring's Magi-Whirl 2019 one of the best ever. A few weeks ago we signed a contract with the Schlesinger Concert Hall and Arts Center in Alexandria, Virginia to rent the entire facility beginning the evening of April 12 and continuing through our gala public show on the evening of April 13. For those of you who are not familiar with this facility, it is magnificent with a 981 seat auditorium and abundant space for all the other activities we desire.

Mr. Michael Finney, who has had a long and distinguished career as a comedy magician has agreed to provide a lecture during the Convention and serve as the Master of Ceremonies for the public gala show. Oh, and did I mention that he is the current International President of the IBM, taking over from our own Bob Patterson this past July?

From Argentina we will have Gustavo Raley who is an incredible magical performer - his work with shadow puppets in a word is mesmerizing. We will have the wonderful Jessica Jane Peterson who appeared recently on Penn and Teller's "Fool Um" television show and was the cover story in Linking Ring earlier this year. From the Netherlands we will have Niels Duinker, holder of 7 Guinness World records for his juggling. He totally energizes the audience with his antics - such as juggling seven things high in the air while eating an apple. He does it all at light speed. From Long Beach, California we will have children's magician, Christopher T Magician, and of course, our own man of mentalism Christophe Jelinski. Not to be missed will be the Saturday lecture by David Roth, King of Coins! More to come on this as everything gets put together.

I'm looking forward to seeing each of you at next month's Ring 50 Children's Holiday Magic Show. It's a great time to see four of our own-Nolan Montgomery, Arnie Fuoco, Drew Owens, and JT the Unstoppable perform for the kids. The show MC will be past Ring 50 President Larry Lipman. Bring a boxed toy or non-perishable food item to be donated to the local Alexandria Citadel Salvation Army and enjoy the fun along with the kids.

Have a magical month.

Stan Hillard

NOVEMBER

Happy Thanksgiving

Children's Holiday Show December 5

On December 5 at 6:45 PM Ring 50 will present the "Children's Holiday Magic Show" featuring five of Washington's finest children's magicians. You saw how successful it has been the last few years for the children and the community!

The show will be at the Holiday Inn-Carlyle, 2460 Eisenhower Ave, Alexandria, VA.

The performers will be Noland the Magician, Arnold Fuoco, Professor Fizzwiffle, JT the Unstoppable and past Ring 50 President Larry Lipman as MC.

Just confirmed from the North Pole that Santa will be greeting all the children as they arrive for the show.

Admittance is FREE – when you bring a donation of a new unwrapped toy or non-perishable food item to be donated to needy families of the area during this holiday time by the Alexandria Citadel, Salvation Army.

The Holiday show starts at 6:45 PM and will be over at 8:00 PM. Be sure to bring the kids and see a great Holiday show compliments of Ring 50.

Ring 50 Members Visit Magic Castle

In October Marc Carrion & Jen had a great time at the Magic Castle. They saw several shows, the two enjoyed the most were Rich Cowley in the Library Bar and Riccardo Berdini, an Italian magician they caught just before leaving. They saw card magic, coin magic, mentalism, and ropes. Marc says the castle was a real magical experience, and probably saw less than 10% of what was going on. They can't wait to go again.

In early November Dr. Arnie Levin & Ellen had a lot of fun at the Magic Castle. Dr. Arnie says: "However, this was my first time there and I learned the correct way to attend. Going to the Castle is like going to Disneyworld...you must plan in advance what you want to see and do. First, remember coming from East Coast, there is a 3 hour time change and adjust your schedule accordingly. We had a 6pm dinner reservation that was 9pm our time. The shows start at 8pm Pacific time which is 11pm our time. The last show is 12pm which is 3am our time. We only lasted for 2 shows.

The theaters are small and the close-up room holds only 18 people. The rooms were difficult to find and there were long waiting lines to stand in. Plan in advance. Dinner was very good but expensive. The experience was worth it and fun."

They were entertained with Keith Fields & Lady Sarah, Alexander the Great, and juggler Mickey O'Connor in the Palace of Mystery. Also in the Parlor of Prestidigitation was Hillel & Leticia with a 20 minute mentalism act. All had a good performance.

Dr. Arnie says: "The best part was staying at the very nice Castle Hotel with free candy, ice cream, and sodas. All in all, it was fun, I would go again, but I would really plan it in advance."

DID YOU KNOW?

By John S. Roberts

That in July, 1977, Ring 50 hosted the 49th I.B.M. Convention at the Washington Hilton in D.C.?

The four-day magical conclave kicked off on Wednesday night, July 6th, with an opening show produced by Ring 50 with Al Cohen as Master of Ceremonies. Kohl & Company was a featured act which they reprised nearly 50 years later in 2018 at Ring 50's annual Magi-Whirl.

Howard Bamman wrote in the Linking Ring:* "Washington Capital Ring 50 members went all out to provide an evening of entertainment, fun and fellowship that proved to be an auspicious beginning for the rest of the convention. It was a showcase that set the stage for shows to come. Producers Larry West and Art Emerson, together with Ring 50 members, did an outstanding job of keeping the (magic community) happy."

Ring 50 Past President (1974-5) Bill Wells was the liaison between the convention organizers and Ring 50. He says "The local Ring played a bigger role at that time than they do today. We were responsible for the first night show, the convention program, and many other details."

The President of Ring 50 that convention year was Doc Dougherty.

Throughout the four days, Ring 50 members played various support functions to keep the convention running smoothly. Prominent magicians who took part in the festivities included Paul Gertner, Trevor Lewis, The Gustafsons, Harry Riser, Tony Griffith, Mike Caveney, Denny and Lee and Rick Johansson.

Bill Wells: "Jimmy Carter was President at that time and we invited Amy Carter to attend one of the evening shows and to our delight, the White House accepted. We moved IBM VIPs off the front row to make room for Amy and her entourage. After the show, Amy came back stage to meet and thank all the acts. One of the acts was Christian from East Germany (not Magic Christian from Vienna). We later learned that he was actually a Russian spy using magic as a cover. I guess the secret service didn't do a great job of vetting in those days.

Howard Bamman wrote in the Linking Ring: "Trying to review a set of magic shows of the caliber presented at the Washington Convention (July 6-9) is something like describing the thrill of seeing a glorious sunrise. Words are somehow inadequate. From the opening night fun and frolic to the closing showing show convention registrants were treated to magic, Magic, MAGIC!

Bill Wells recalls: "Working on the convention was a great thing for Ring 50 – most everyone pitched in and worked on the convention. It really strengthened the Ring. Those years and the next few years were high points for the Ring and the membership. Because of hotel rates and theatre unions it is unlikely there will be another IBM convention in D.C. in the foreseeable future particularly with the declining convention attendances."

Ring 50 Goes to the Big Apple & Sees
“Six Impossible Things”

Joshua Jay

The “Ring 50 Special” New York trip to see Joshua Jay’s interactive magic experience “Six Impossible Things” on 10 November was enjoyed by Ring 50 members and their invited guests.

The Ring 50 members journeyed down a narrow flight of stairs at the tip of Canal Street and assembled in a red-lit room that looked like the foyer of a hipster bordello. The mood was tremulous, the air scented with cinnamon and enigma. At show time, bedsheets the gray were distributed and more or less willingly slipped on, ghost-style. After only a little more inanity, Joshua himself sporting a Henley shirt appeared with a slightly goofy grin, looking like a fraternity pledge. Following a wicked trust-building exercise, he sent the audience merrily marching through a series of small rooms, counting off the illusions, a few of them loosely inspired by “Alice in Wonderland.”

In each room, a new mystery unfolded to reveal another “impossible thing.”

His sleights were accomplished casually and expertly and with such cheerful misdirection that the hands themselves never caught the eye. Most of the tricks were sleights though clever variations on the usual card, coin, and rope routines to an exercise in bending utensils, that were performed in different settings in which the audience sat just a few feet and sometimes inches away from Joshua.

The show was an intimate affair staged for an audience of 20. It was a great chance to meet and chat with Joshua and see a show that has been touted as something uniquely wonderful.

Dani DaOrtiz Presents
Masterclass for Ring 50

Dani DaOrtiz

A Masterclass with Dani DaOrtiz was held on 4 November at the Knights of Columbus Hall (behind St. Leo Church) on Old Lee Highway in Fairfax VA for Ring 50 members. The 6-hour masterclass was an extraordinary opportunity to learn from one of the top magicians in the world, and have a lot of fun doing so. Dani combined superb technique with crazy humor. A student of Juan Tamariz, his magic was sometimes characterized as being unconventional and making much use of improvisation. It allowed him to create incredibly dynamic routines that cater to those particular audiences in the specific environment in which he is working. Dani is also a prolific editor and author of magic magazines, books, and DVDs.

Counts of Conjuring
Meets December 5,
6:00 pm

The International Brotherhood of Magicians, National Capitol Ring 50, "Counts of Conjuring" meets first Wednesday of every month at the Holiday Inn at 2460 Eisenhower Ave, Alexandria, VA. at 6:00pm. The "Counts" is a way for youths to learn about magic and the performance of magic.

Louis the Magician teaches the Discover Magic course. This is an amazing course that not only will teach the youths magic but will also teach them important "life-skills". This class is normally taught in after-school programs and summer camps and costs $275 per child but will be FREE for the Counts of Conjuring (only cost is $40 for the actual magic tricks).

Each month the youths will learn one new magic trick and have a chance to perform it. The Counts of Conjuring is for youths 8 to 17 years.

First meeting of the new year:
January 2, 2019, 6:00pm

Magic Quickies Needed

Send John Roberts a short trick you would like to share with newsletter readers. He will pick the best one (in his judgement), one for each edition of the Magi-Gram. There are no guidelines other than the entry should be brief, simple, doable and fun; the offbeat and quirky are encouraged. Send to John: Barjorobts@comcast.net

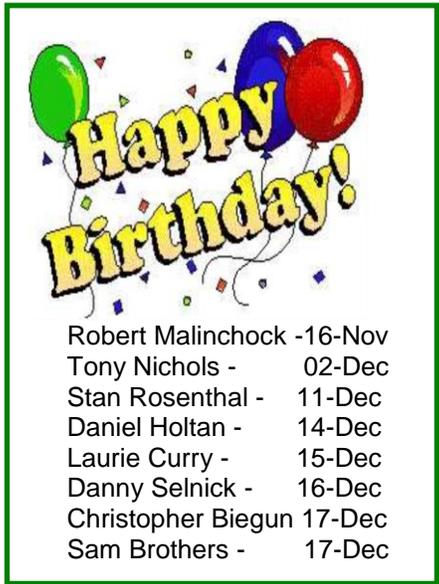

Challenge Reveal

Arnie Levin submitted this very nice "Find the Selection" trick. The challenge is to come up with your own, alternative way of revealing the chosen card. First, the set up:

Have the spectator shuffle the deck of cards and then deal, left to right and face down, three rows of five cards each. Have him pick a pile, cut off a few cards and note the one on the bottom. He replaces the cards on any other pile – not the one it came from. Put any pile on top and the final pile on top of that.

Now the spectator deals out two piles, starting with one on the left and alternating the cards. Give the spectator a Magician's Choice so that he ends up with the right-hand packet. The spectator's card will be the third one from the top: Using his super-sensitive surgeon's hands Dr. Levin spreads and "senses" the cards, rejecting some and setting others aside as "possibilities" until he reaches and reveals the chosen card - Applause cue.

Since not all of us are gifted with hand like Arnie's, you are invited to create your own reveal; A humorous, over the top, outside the box, off the wall, original ending. Send it to me and I will put it in the next "quickie" column. Or just use Arnie's version – it's a fine trick just as it is.
